Dr Christian W. Konrad is the founding and managing partner of Konrad Partners.

He is an advocate in the fields of international arbitration, international litigation and public international law. He has extensive experience with arbitral practice, procedure and advocacy both in civil and common law systems. His practice covers inter-state, international and commercial disputes.

He has represented international organizations and private commercial parties in a broad range of cases involving inter alia long-term energy contracts, complex construction contracts, concession agreements, entitlement to natural resources, sports, immunities from jurisdiction, infrastructure projects, mergers and acquisitions, and failed investments in Central and Eastern Europe and Africa. Christian also advises clients in contract negotiations, public tender proceedings, on the protection of their investment and enforcement of arbitration awards and state court judgements throughout the world.

He frequently acts as arbitrator and is a member of panels of various arbitration institutions worldwide. He is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR and a Chartered Arbitrator and past immediate vice president of the Kosovo Permanent Tribunal of Arbitration.
